

Unit Title: Understanding Family Relationships
Unit Level: Level 2
Unit Credit Value: 3
GLH: 24
LASER Unit Code: WJC367
Ofqual Unit Code: F/506/0721

This unit has 6 learning outcomes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES		ASSESSMENT CRITERIA
The learner will:		The learner can:
1.	Know the changing nature of families.	1.1	Describe the variety of forms the family can take.
		1.2	Describe the strengths and weaknesses of each type of family unit.
2.	Understand the different roles within the family.	2.1	Describe the different roles of members of a family unit and how these may change over time.
3.	Understand some of the causes and effects of problems in family life.	3.1	Describe the most common causes of problems and the possible effects these may have on the family.
		3.2	Assess strategies to alleviate some of these problems.
4.	Understand their personal responsibilities within the family to family members.	4.1	Describe their main responsibilities within the family to other members and suggest how these can be carried out.
5.	Know that family members have changing needs.	5.1	Describe how the needs of family members may change as circumstances change.
		5.2	Outline the consequences of this.
6.	Develop their own strategies for future direction and personal development as a member of the family unit.	6.1	Produce a life plan for the future in relation to their own and their family's needs identifying possible problems and solutions.

Assessment Guidance:

NA

Additional Information:

NA