

Unit Title: Principles Of Basic Preparation And Operation Of A Tractor
Unit Level: Level 1
Unit Credit Value: 3
GLH: 27
LASER Unit Code: WJC707
Ofqual Unit Code: R/506/1002

This unit has 3 learning outcomes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES		ASSESSMENT CRITERIA
The learner will:		The learner can:
1.	Know how to prepare and operate a tractor for operation.	1.1	State the required pre-start checks and adjustments and the reasons for doing these.
		1.2	List current and relevant health and safety in relation to the preparation and use of tractors.
		1.3	Describe the use of appropriate warning signals and indicators and the length of time that these are displayed.
		1.4	State types of hazards which may be encountered and how these should be dealt with.
		1.5	State the capabilities of the vehicle and the expected efficiency of vehicle operation.
		1.6	Give the reasons why the vehicle should be left in a condition suitable for future use.
		1.7	State the capabilities of the vehicle and the expected efficiency of vehicle operation.
2.	Know how to prepare and fit an attachment to a tractor.	2.1	State required pre-operational checks for attachments.
		2.2	List types of attachments and how they should be secured to the trailer.
		2.3	State types of attachments that are safe for use with the tractor and those that are not.
		2.4	State health and safety requirements in relation to tractor attachments.
3.	Know how to operate a tractor with attachments.	3.1	State the ways in which the vehicle should be manoeuvred.
		3.2	Describe how different weather and ground conditions must be taken into account.
		3.3	State types of hazards which may be encountered and how these should be dealt with.
		3.4	State the capabilities of the tractor and its attachment.

Unit Title: Principles Of Basic Preparation And Operation Of A Tractor
Unit Level: Level 1
Unit Credit Value: 3
GLH: 27
LASER Unit Code: WJC707
Ofqual Unit Code: R/506/1002

		3.5	State the reasons why faults and damage should be reported.
		3.6	List health and safety legislation, and codes of practice in relation to the safe use of tractors and attachments.

Assessment Guidance:

NA

Additional Information:

NA
