

Unit Title: Parenting Skills
Unit Level: Level 2
Unit Credit Value: 3
GLH: 24
LASER Unit Code: WJD416
Ofqual Unit Code: A/504/7787

This unit has 5 learning outcomes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES		ASSESSMENT CRITERIA
The learner will:		The learner can:
1.	Know the responsibilities of being a parent.	1.1	Discuss own responsibilities as a parent.
		1.2	Identify how these responsibilities may change in the future.
2.	Understand the rights and needs of different family members.	2.1	Identify the individual rights and needs of different members within the family.
		2.2	Suggest ways in which these rights and needs can be met as children grow and develop.
3.	Understand the importance of listening to children and giving them choices.	3.1	Identify situations in which it is important to listen to children.
		3.2	Describe ways to offer choices at different stages of children's development.
4.	Know about the major stages of a child's development.	4.1	Outline the stages of a child's development from 0 – 16 years.
		4.2	Describe the importance of being honest with children at different stages in their development.
		4.3	Outline techniques that might be used to cope with children's behaviour in given situations.
		4.4	Outline strategies that might be used to cope with children's behaviour in given situations.
5.	Know how positive parenting builds self-esteem in children.	5.1	Identify positive interactions with children.
		5.2	Describe interactions which can build a child's self-esteem.
		5.3	Explain ways in which children learn through daily activities.
		5.4	Describe the importance of being honest with children at different stages in their development.

Assessment Guidance:

NA

Additional Information:

NA