

Unit Title: Understanding The Radiography And Medical Imaging Profession
Unit Level: Level 2
Unit Credit Value: 3
GLH: 24
LASER Unit Code: WJF263
Ofqual Unit Code: A/507/2317

This unit has 5 learning outcomes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES		ASSESSMENT CRITERIA
The learner will:		The learner can:
1.	Understand what is meant by the term 'radiography and medical imaging'.	1.1	Describe what is meant by the term 'radiography and medical imaging'.
2.	Understand types and needs of patients served by the radiography and medical imaging profession.	2.1	Identify different types of patients served by the radiography and medical imaging profession.
		2.2	Describe the different needs of patients served by the radiography and medical imaging profession.
3.	Know about professional bodies related to the radiography and medical imaging profession.	3.1	Identify the main professional bodies relevant to the radiography and medical imaging profession.
		3.2	Describe the role of one professional body relevant to the radiography and medical imaging profession.
4.	Know about the legislative framework and statutory obligations relevant to the radiography and medical imaging profession.	4.1	Identify and outline key regulatory legislation and statutory obligations relevant to the radiography and medical imaging profession.
		4.2	Describe the impact of the legal and statutory requirements on the operation of the radiography and medical imaging profession.
5.	Know about current policy developments related to the radiography and medical imaging profession.	5.1	Describe a current policy development or idea relevant to the radiography and medical imaging profession.
		5.2	Describe the potential impact of a single policy development relevant to the radiography and medical imaging profession.

Assessment Guidance:
NA

Additional Information:
NA