

Unit Title: Dealing With Loss And Grief In Health
 And Social Care
Unit Level: Level 2
Unit Credit Value: 3
GLH: 24
LASER Unit Code: WJF276
Ofqual Unit Code: A/505/2410

This unit has 4 learning outcomes.

LEARNING OUTCOMES		ASSESSMENT CRITERIA
The learner will:		The learner can:
1.	Know about loss and grief.	1.1	Describe the different types of loss and grief that people may encounter in their lives.
		1.2	Describe the different effects loss and grief can have on people at different stages of their life, including social, emotional, physical and behavioural effects.
		1.3	Describe the way in which a person's culture, religion or personal beliefs may affect the way in which they experience grief and loss.
2.	Know the process of grieving and adjusting to loss.	2.1	Outline some of the different views about the stages an individual goes through when grieving or adjusting to loss.
3.	Know how a health and social care professional can support an individual to adjust to loss or grief.	3.1	Describe different strategies a health and social care professional can use to help an individual a) through the process of grieving b) deal with the effects of loss or grief on their lives.
		3.2	Explain how strategies for supporting an individual might differ according to their age, culture, religion or personal beliefs.
		3.3	State how accessing support for themselves can help a health and social care professional to better support those adjusting to loss or grief.
4.	Know about support services for people grieving or adjusting to loss.	4.1	Outline the types of support available to people grieving or adjusting to loss and how they can be accessed.

Assessment Guidance:
Portfolio of Evidence

Additional Information:
NA