

Unit Title:	Preparing For And Taking Written Exams
Unit Level:	Level 3
Unit Credit Value:	3
GLH:	15
LASER Unit Code:	WJH239
Ofqual Unit Code:	A/650/4309

This unit has 3 learning outcomes.

Learning Outcome (The Learner will):		Assessment Criteria (The Learner can):
1.	Know about the different types of written exams.	1.1	Describe the difference between formative and summative assessments.
		1.2	Describe the purpose of academic exams as both formative and summative assessments.
		1.3	Identify different forms of written exam.
		1.4	Critically compare different forms of written exam.
2.	Be able to prepare for a written exam.	2.1	Consider what examiners are looking for in responses to written exams.
		2.2	Interpret the purpose of different types of question paper.
		2.3	Critically compare different strategies for exam revision.
		2.4	Apply revision strategies to meet own needs.
		2.5	Evaluate strategies for managing exam related stress.
		2.6	Implement strategies for managing exam related stress to meet own situation.
		2.7	Assess own revision strategies including ways of managing exam related stress.
3.	Be able to manage different types of written exam.	3.1	Complete written exams.
		3.2	Reflect on own performance in managing a written exam.
		3.3	Identify key learning points from the exam experience.

Assessment Guidance:

The assessment method for this unit must evaluate the student's skills in preparing for and taking a written exam.

Additional Information:

LASER has an exemplar brief which centres can use or adapt for assessment purposes.